

Reverend Judith is a thoughtful, caring, experienced officiant, who quite literally wrote the book on wedding ceremony planning. She took the time to meet us and get to know us and our preferences long before the wedding. She helped us craft and coordinate a beautiful ceremony. She was a wonderful celebrant and was a critical part of our special day. We highly recommend her to couples attempting to put together a loving and beautiful ceremony that you will always remember.

Judith was the perfect Officiant for our wedding. My husband and I wanted something warm, personal, and with some ritual and spiritual elements but not religious. After meeting with us, Judith completely understood what we were looking for and helped guide us through the process. Using her book, which has many beautiful passages to choose from, we put together a ceremony that had everything we imagined. Judith kept us on track and delivered a warm, personal, and humorous ceremony that our guests raved about. I recommend her highly.

My fiance and I waited until the very last moment to meet with any officiant, I really wanted to find someone who would take the time to get to know us and understand our relationship and what we wanted for our ceremony. As soon as I read Judith's message on her site I knew I wanted to meet with her! First of all, she is a best-selling author for her wedding ceremony book which guided us with ease to picking out the readings for our ceremony and essentially build our ceremony for us. Judith was very flexible meeting with us and we talked for a while about what exactly we were looking for. Judith guided us through the whole process of creating our ceremony and we went from not really being sure of what we wanted to creating a ceremony that was perfect for us. I still am getting many compliments on how perfect our ceremony was and we could not agree more! If you are looking for an extraordinary officiant I would 100% advise to schedule a meeting with Judith!!

Reverend Judith Johnson, is absolutely the way to go. She is very professional and down to earth. She makes it a point to get to know the people that she is working for, and will help them in any way she can. After our first meeting, we knew that Judith was the officiant for us. We met her at her home, with her 2 cats, and she proceeded to get to know us and where we came from. Asking what type of wedding we were looking for and location. She listened closely and gave some suggestions as we went.

Her book and worksheets, which she gives to all her couples, were extremely helpful; the book gave us many different options and wordings that we could either copy or alter to suit our wedding and tastes.

We would recommend her to anyone!! Doesn't matter your faith, orientation, or wedding style, Judith is right for everyone! Judith will work with you from day one to help make your special day go flawlessly!

From the moment we spoke with Reverend Johnson, we knew that she had to be our wedding officiant. The entire process was not only organized and efficient, but Judith really helped us turn our focus to the real purpose of the wedding. We had become so wrapped up in the parties, the invite list and the logistics of everything, that we were so happy to have someone in the process help to ground us. To help us focus on our relationship and beginning our life together as a married couple.

Judith has a wonderful process, including worksheets that guide you in your planning. And buying and using her book was really helpful for us. She also helped us write our vows, which we revealed to each other during the ceremony. It was so helpful to have her guide us on this aspect. We thoroughly enjoyed working with Judith. The wedding was perfect and we owe so much of that to Reverend Johnson. We would highly recommend her to anyone!

When we met with Judith for the first time, we knew in an instant that she was the officiant for us. Her warm demeanor, helpful ideas and genuine excitement for our day sealed the deal. Our goal was to create a ceremony that was heartfelt, unique to us and that would touch our guests. Judith's book was an amazing resource for all sorts of ideas and served as a wonderful blueprint that helped simplify the whole process. Her feedback, editing suggestions and help with our vows made our ceremony beautifully polished. Since our wedding, so many people have approached me to tell me how beautiful the ceremony was and to talk about specific parts of it--it's obvious that they were touched, as we were, and this whole experience exceeded all my hopes. Judith is a lovely speaker, a wonderful person and she'll feel like part of your family. I couldn't recommend her more.

Judith Johnson officiated our wedding this summer, and she was excellent. She met with us first in Manhattan to discuss our needs, and with her help we crafted a custom wedding ceremony. My wife and I are from different backgrounds and so we wanted a ceremony that reflected our shared values. Judith worked with us to craft the ceremony, help us with timing and editing, and perfect our vows. She was very professional and courteous. She was very accessible by phone and willing to offer as much or as little help as we needed. The ceremony went exactly as we had planned. We would definitely recommend her to others.

When I began my search for an officiant for my wedding, I kept a few keywords in my mind for what I was looking for: spiritual, calm, romantic, personal, & loving. I know it sounds strange but I was also looking for someone with good pace, tone & presence, because after all, your officiant will set the tone for your wedding. When I had visited Judith Johnson's website and watched the video of her officiating a wedding, I knew she was exactly what I was looking for. She was so relaxed and had a beautifully calm voice. I knew she would put my husband and I at ease and give us the romantic, loving touch we were looking for.

Judith is kind, organized, professional, and has a clear vision of what a ceremony should be. She will help you design your ceremony (she has written a book with many different beautiful ceremony ideas/ readings in it), lead your rehearsal, and answer all the questions you didn't know you needed to ask! Numerous people came up to me during my reception to tell me what a beautiful ceremony it was, and Judith was a big part of why it was so beautiful.

Judith Johnson was amazing to work with! She helped my husband and I design our ceremony to make it more personalized for us. It came out amazing and truly made the day extra special for us. She also worked with us when we needed to change our wedding date due to my husband getting deployed. She gave us support during that time and cared about us instead of just showing up on the wedding day to do a job. She's also very organized and open to help and answer any questions you have along the way.

Absolutely wonderful!!!! Highly recommend. We had a beautiful service and Rev Judith could not have been kinder, more generous, more thoughtful!!!! Very flexible, listened to everything we hoped for and came up with a beautiful service.

My wife and I used Judith as the officiant for our wedding and we could not have been more pleased. She clearly knows what she is doing & had a very professional manner. She genuinely seemed to care about us and all the details to nailing down our ceremony exactly the way we wanted. We weren't really sure at first how we saw the whole ceremony taking place, but Judith was an excellent guide and presented us with multiple options that we were able to customize exactly the way we wanted. She was a big help in recommending other vendors as well.

We would highly recommend using Judith if you are not going the in-church/synagogue route and want a real personal touch & highly customized feel to your wedding.

We feel so blessed to have found Judith to marry us! She helped us craft beautiful and balanced vows that we will treasure for the rest of lives. We have heard so much wonderful feedback from our guests about how touched and moved everyone was. Judith helped us design the perfect ceremony, she thought of all the small details and made sure we focused on what was most to important - our promises to each other as partners in life. We could not be happier and are so very thankful for all of her guidance!

Judith is a wonderful officiant. She really listened to what we said and crafted a very personal ceremony. She has a lovely presence, and is well spoken. I had confidence she would say all the things we needed and wanted to hear at our wedding. She has a big heart and that adds a lot to the loving energy of the ceremony. I would describe her as smart, warm, available, present and full of love.

Thank you for doing an amazing ceremony for us!

Non-denominational, easy to work with, and her book is a handy cheat sheet to make planning the ceremony simple.

My husband and I could not be happier that we used Judith to officiate our October 2013 wedding. We are an interfaith couple and were unsure of what our ceremony would look like. Judith walked us through the process and we were involved in selecting every aspect of our ceremony. The ceremony was totally personalized to fit us as a couple. We got countless complements on how intimate our ceremony was. Judith was professional, warm, and extremely helpful in making our wedding such a success! We highly recommend Judith Johnson as a ceremony officiant!

We met with Judith at her home last winter and we found her to be best suited to marry us. She was courteous, honest, and very insightful. She helped me see things in a different light, and how we could create the wedding we both wanted. As I always said it is not "my day" it is "our day" and that was important to me. After purchasing her first book, I skimmed through it and was able to view examples in order to compile our ceremony with ease.

We wanted short, simple and elegant, and with Judith's guidance and support we were able to achieve just that! The rehearsal went off without a hitch (considering my future husband was sick), she got everyone in line very quickly and allowed time for any questions. The day of the wedding went better than I expected (nerves tend to take control). Judith helped us through it. I couldn't be happier with her services. I strongly recommend her for your special occasion. She is not only well-organized, but takes all of your likes/dislikes into account and it creates for a much more harmonious event. We couldn't be happier as husband and wife.

Reverend Johnson did a phenomenal job with our wedding. Our wedding was an interfaith ceremony involving two very different cultures with a second officiant. Not an easy ceremony to manage, for sure!

She took charge of our ceremony, made great recommendations to make the entire event seamless, and created a wonderful ceremony for us. She's also authored a wedding ceremony planner which we found to be very helpful for the process.

We can't thank Reverend Johnson enough for all of her hard work and would highly recommend her!

Reverend Judith Johnson was an amazing officiant and we couldn't have asked for anyone better! From the beginning, she wanted my husband and I to be a part of the whole process. She wanted to know what both of us wanted and how we wanted our ceremony to go. She was never pushy with her opinions and was open to anything that we wanted. If we got stuck on something, she was there to help. My husband and I would highly recommend her services to any one of our friends, family or strangers!

We did purchase her book which was a HUGE help. My husband and I didn't want anything fancy for our ceremony but the book let us decide what we wanted to incorporate into our ceremony and also what we didn't want. I would recommend the book to others also!

***

Judith was fantastic. She is extremely experienced so she knows about all the potential pitfalls/things to think about beforehand and is extremely organized but when it comes down to the actual wedding she has a very calming presence. A perfect combination for a wedding officiant! She helped us plan a fantastic, very personal, ceremony. It was very special for us and also for our guests. I'd recommend Judith in a heartbeat and would also recommend reading her book on ceremony planning!
